Accessing Relief Under Coronavirus Legislation

*Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA)
Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act)*

New laws provide significant payroll relief to businesses and not-for-profit organizations facing liquidity challenges in the wake of the Coronavirus pandemic. There are complex requirements and interactions among the pieces of relief. The solution isn't necessarily all or nothing. Crowe can assist employers with navigating how the pieces of the puzzle fit together to optimize relief opportunities. The Crowe team has your solutions.

Crowe Tax Solutions

✓ Technical advice — Our specialists, including former government officials, can assist in determining and implementing a strategy tailored to your organization's circumstances. We are conversant in the complex interaction of the various relief provisions and evolving guidance.

✓ Policies and procedures — Crowe can assist management with establishing and documenting internal processes and procedures for recordkeeping and substantiation of requirements to claim relief. We also can perform or review calculations.

✓ Paycheck Protection Program — Crowe can advise on determining the payroll costs and related tax rules that impact the loan amount, as well as strategies to maximize loan forgiveness.

✓ Payroll tax compliance — Crowe can advise on procedures to obtain payroll deposit deferrals and claim payroll tax credits (including offsets to deposits, advance credits, and refunds). We also can assist with the reconciliation process and interface with payroll providers.
