

Can Your Data Do This?

Crowe[®] RCA Benchmarking Analytics: Premier Access

Having the right information at the right time can make all the difference. Participating in the Crowe RCA Benchmarking Analytics program allows your hospital to measure revenue cycle performance in real time so you quickly can gain insight into trends, compare your organization's performance with that of your peers, and make today's strategic revenue cycle decisions.

Crowe RCA Benchmarking Analytics Premier offers several distinct advantages:

- Measurement of your organization's performance against a group of your peers from more than 450 participating organizations
- Combination of Crowe RCA finance data with 835 and 837 electronic remittance data, which allows for unique key performance indicator analysis (such as high deductible health plan patient responsibility realization, comparison of denied vs. non-denied account realization and denials analysis by attending physician)
- Personalized metrics delivered to provide true operational guidance (includes 30 hours for ad-hoc reporting and analysis)

Crowe RCA Benchmarking Analytics can give the metrics you need to move beyond best practices and develop meaningful plans to improve strategic performance.

Customized peer group comparisons allow your organization the most meaningful segment views for benchmarking and goal-setting:

- Geographic region (Medicaid expansion vs. nonexpansion)
- Net revenue per day
- Payer mix
- Urban versus rural
- Academic hospitals only
- Outsourced vs. internal revenue cycle functions
- Patient accounting systems
- Facility type (such as acute, critical access)
