

Colin Kirkpatrick, CPA, CA
Senior Manager, Assurance

500 - 1620 Dickson Avenue
Kelowna, British Columbia V1Y 9Y2
Canada
Main: 1 (250) 763 5021
Colin.Kirkpatrick@crowemackay.ca

Professional Summary

- Raised in Kelowna, Colin joined Crowe MacKay in 2011 and works primarily in audit and assurance, providing both compliance and transaction related services to a variety of industries.
- Colin places an emphasis on developing a strong relationship with clients to ensure he understands their needs and is able to help them achieve their goals.

Experience

- Colin has experience in financial statement audits; audits of specific elements of financial statements; and on specialized audit procedures on financial information other than financial statements.
- He also has experience in helping private businesses establish and improve on its internal controls, as well as helping companies work through first-time audit experiences.

Professional Affiliations

- Colin is a member of the Chartered Professional Accountants of British Columbia.

Education

- Colin received his Bachelor of Business Administration from Okanagan College with a major in accounting in 2012.
- He received his Chartered Accountant (CA) designation in 2015.

Community Involvement

- Colin is actively involved with Crowe MacKay's mentorship program for articling students, which prepares internal students for their Chartered Professional Accountants designation exam.
- Colin is on the Board of Directors for Project Literacy Kelowna as the Treasurer.

Service Focus:

- Audit
- Assurance
- Tax

Industry Focus:

- Aviation
- Technology
- Wholesale and Distribution