Professional Summary

- David leads the SR&ED and Business Tax Incentives service line for Crowe MacKay LLP.
- He is a problem solver with strong analytical skills and a client-centered approach to his work.
- His areas of expertise include accounting and tax, business development, leadership and training, SR&ED (Scientific Research and Experimental Development taxes), and BC IDMTC (BC Interactive Digital Media Tax Credits).

Experience

- David has almost 30 years of extensive experience in the accounting industry. He began his career at a small, independent accounting firm working with small and medium-sized businesses to whom he provided full-cycle accounting services.
- While working at a large national firm, David gained experience in project management, and provided insights and solutions on complex tax issues and tax credits. While there, in addition to being a national SR&ED resource, he developed the BC IDMTC service line and continued to help improve the processes of existing service lines.
- David has significant experience in defending taxpayer submissions. His assistance with CRA's SR&ED claim audits has ensured claimants obtain fair outcomes.
- He has always had a strong focus on his communication and client relationships.
