Professional Summary

- Emily has been working in public practice for over 20 years, with a special affection for tax that started from her very first tax season in 1996. A keen desire to learn and provide a broader range of services to clients led her into the world of cross-border taxation. For the past 10 years, she has been developing her knowledge and skills in the area of U.S. and non-resident tax return preparation and filing compliance.
- Her passion for tax is undeniable, which makes her an excellent resource for clients to ensure their filing and compliance matters are met with professionalism, efficiency, and enthusiasm.

Experience

- Emily provides a variety of taxation services to individuals, trusts, and private corporations residing in Canada with tax compliance and planning needs.
- She also provides taxation services to U.S. individuals and non-residents including treaty-based filings and the special compliance matters that relate to them.

Community Involvement

- As a local born on the Coast, Emily has played numerous roles in the community over the years including Treasurer of the PAC for Chatelech Secondary School, coaching kids' soccer and baseball, fostering kittens for the local SPCA, counting bats for the Sunshine Coast Wildlife project, and baking for the cold weather shelter.
- Emily also loves to take full advantage of living in the beautiful Sunshine Coast community and spends her free time hiking, kayaking, swimming and just enjoying nature.
