

Jack Arnold, FCPA, FCA
Associate

200 – 5455 152 Street
Surrey, British Columbia V3S 5A5
Canada
Main: 1 (604) 591 6181
Jack.Arnold@crowemackay.ca

Professional Summary

- Jack is the definitive people person. An accounting generalist, born and raised in North Vancouver, Jack really enjoys working with his clients.
- His secret to successful relationships is intuition. As Jack puts it, "The trick is to ask the right questions." And he obviously does, because his client list is very diverse.

Experience

- Since entering public practice in 1969, Jack has assisted a variety of businesses with a wide range of services including audit, accounting, small business taxation, and numerous consulting engagements.

Service Focus:

- Audit
- Advisory
- Succession | Retirement | Estate Planning

Professional Affiliations

- Jack spent 10 years on the BC Institute of Chartered Accountants council, and 8 years chairing their Practice and Review Licensing Committee.
- He continues to volunteer with ICABC, and in 2013, they awarded him with the FCA designation.
- Upon amalgamation, his formal designation is FCPA, FCA.

Industry Focus:

- Professionals

Education

- Jack attended Simon Fraser University and received his Chartered Accountant (CA) designation in 1975.

Community Involvement

- Jack is a former director of the Terminal City Club, a private organization founded in Vancouver in 1892 for members of businesses that have made significant contributions to the political and business activity of Vancouver, and the province of British Columbia.
- Jack has served as an executive for a Junior Soccer Club, had coached youth soccer for 21 years, and acted as the treasurer for the Adanac Junior Lacrosse Club.