Professional Summary

- As managing director of the Vancouver, Surrey, and Sunshine Coast offices, Stefan stays focused on the big picture. He is calm, composed, organized, and creative.
- In an industry where small mistakes can mean high costs for clients, Stefan is the person you want working on your behalf. Applying the same entrepreneurial spirit, not only to Crowe MacKay LLP, but also to the private businesses that he serves, Stefan is motivated by guiding colleagues and clients towards new opportunities and better solutions.

Experience

- Since joining the firm in 2002, Stefan has been applying this forward-thinking approach to his assurance practice to better serve private companies. Clients may come to Stefan for the preparation of financial statements and general business advisory, but they stay with him for his commitment to providing sound advice, financial reporting standards, and taxation environments.
- He has developed an extensive knowledge of several niche industries including, real estate and construction, wholesale distribution, retail, and technology, allowing Stefan to know the right questions to ask to make sure his clients get the right answers.

Professional Affiliations

- A home-town boy with a dedication to giving back, Stefan participates on the board of directors for several local not for profit organizations.

Education

- Stefan graduated from the University of British Columbia with a Bachelor of Commerce.
- He then obtained his Chartered Accountant designation and went on to complete several professional development courses including the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants' Tax Practitioner's Course.

Community Involvement

- Along with his work for non-profit groups, Stefan also enjoys being part of his local golf and hockey communities, and coaching children's sports teams.
