Professional Summary

- Alex Carswell joined Crowe Soberman in 2010 and is a partner in the firm's Audit & Advisory Group. Before joining the firm, Alex obtained a wide variety of experience working at a mid-sized accounting firm in Toronto for several years while gaining his CPA, CA designation.

Experience

- Alex has always taken a genuine interest in how his clients' businesses operate. This passion for learning about business is what drove him into public accountancy in the first place. Alex leverages this passion to help his clients improve the operating effectiveness of their business and make better decisions. Alex understands that each of his clients have their own personal financial goals and as their trusted advisor, he is called upon to help them to make the important decisions that will get them where they want to go.
- Alex's knowledge and experience spans across a broad range of areas, some of which include:
 - Healthcare and retirement homes
 - Information technology
 - Manufacturing, wholesale and distribution
 - Pension plans
 - Not-for-profit and charitable organizations
- Alex makes it his business to offer quality service to clients and is committed to exceeding their expectations. Clients know and trust that Alex will deliver.
