Professional Summary

- John has been advising clients on their accounting matters for over 55 years. John's clients have come to regard him as a trusted advisor, who is perceptive and responsive to their needs and a good friend.

Experience

- As a former member of the Management Committee and a founding member of the firm, John is most proud of the role he has played in its success.
- He has also gained diverse experience and understanding of his clients' businesses which allowed him to grow and develop the firm.
- In 1969, John merged his firm with that of Crowe Soberman's predecessor, Soberman, Isenbaum & Nisker. Prior to this, John was a partner with Papernick Colomby & Klein.
- John has always taken a hands-on approach in his career and credits being proactive to his success. John now enjoys his unofficial role as the firm's goodwill ambassador and mentoring the partners in the firm.
- John was a past board member of Youthdale Treatment Centres. He was also a board Member, treasurer and vice-chairman at York Finch General Hospital. Outside the office, John has been involved with fund-raising efforts for the Jewish National Fund, the Simon Wiesenthal Centre, the United Jewish Appeal, York Finch Hospital Foundation and the Baycrest Foundation.
