Professional Summary

- Nada is a Senior Manager in Crowe Soberman's Cloud Accounting Group, where she leads a team of bookkeepers and oversees cloud-based financial operations. Since joining the firm in 2010, she has built strong client relationships and provides strategic guidance, drawing on her prior audit and advisory experience. Nada is recognized for her leadership, coaching, and ability to identify value-added service opportunities.

Experience

- Nada specializes in helping businesses streamline their accounting and financial reporting through cloud-based solutions. She is proficient in platforms such as Xero, QuickBooks, and Dext, enabling her to deliver efficient, tailored services that meet diverse client needs. In addition to overseeing day-to-day accounting processes, she contributes to business development by engaging with prospective clients and assessing their requirements.
- Her background in audit and advisory enhances her ability to provide comprehensive guidance, ensuring clients receive both technical expertise and strategic perspective. Known for her positive attitude and ability to connect personally, Nada builds trust and drives successful outcomes. She also mentors and supports her team, guiding their professional growth and maintaining the highest standards of quality in client service.
- Nada has a Bachelor of Commerce degree with a specialization in accounting from The University of Toronto. She obtained her CPA, CA designation in 2009 and also holds a Post Graduate Diploma – Financial Planning (PFINP) from Sheridan College.
- Nada has been volunteering at The Hospital for Sick Children in the oncology ward for five years. This is an experience she has found truly rewarding and has helped shape her into the genuine professional she is today.
