Professional Summary

- As an Audit & Advisory partner with more than 20 years' experience in public accounting, Shalewa has become a close advisor to many of her clients. Her strong analytical and business skills combined with a collaborative and honest approach has proven to be invaluable in helping her clients to achieve their full potential, while protecting their assets and minimizing their taxes.

Experience

- She is experienced in a wide spectrum of sectors including manufacturing, real estate, construction, professionals and not-for-profit.
- Shalewa leads the Employee Benefit Plan Group at Crowe Soberman which has performed numerous audit engagements for pension plans over the years. These include a full spectrum of pension plans in terms of the financial assets in place as well as the complexity and number of beneficiaries. And, as a member of the Association of Canadian Pension Management (ACPM) and the Canadian Pension and Benefits Institute (CPBI), Shalewa stays on top of industry developments.
- Shalewa is also able to leverage the resources and accumulated pension plan audit expertise within our international network with Crowe Global. Our network gives us access to high-level services, resources and expertise while still allowing us to provide personal attention and partner involvement to clients.
- Outside the office, Shalewa is on the Board of Beautiful World Canada Foundation.
