Solicitation of Interest: Notice of Sale Process

14. The Monitor shall be entitled, but not obligated, to arrange for a notice to be published in any newspaper or industry journal as the Monitor considers appropriate if it believes that such advertisement would be useful in the circumstances.
15. The Monitor, with the assistance of the Company, shall prepare:
 - (a) a list of potential buyers (“Interested Parties”);

Sale Process - Phase I

18. During Phase I of the Sale Process, the Monitor, with the assistance of the Company, will solicit non-binding letters of intent from Interested Parties to acquire the Business and/or Assets and/or assume liabilities of the Company.

19. Any Interested Party who wishes to participate in the Sale Process must provide to the Monitor:
 - (a) an NDA executed by it, and a letter setting forth the identity of the Interested Party, the contact information for such Interested Party, and full disclosure of the direct and indirect principals of the Interested Party. The NDA shall include an acknowledgement of the Sale Process terms; and
 - (b) if the Monitor considers it necessary, such form of financial disclosure that allows the Monitor to make a reasonable determination as to the Interested Party's financial and other capabilities to consummate a sale transaction.
20. If an Interested Party: (i) has delivered an executed NDA; and (ii) has provided the Monitor with satisfactory evidence of its capability based on the availability of financing, its experience, and other considerations, to be able to consummate a sale transaction pursuant to the Sale Process, then such Interested Party will be determined by the Monitor to be a "Potential Bidder". The Stalking Horse Purchaser shall be deemed to be a Potential Bidder.
21. The Monitor will provide each Potential Bidder with a copy of the CIM and access to the Data Room. Potential Bidders must rely solely on their own independent review, investigation, and/or inspection of all information and of the Business and/or Assets in connection with their participation in the Sale Process and any transaction they enter into with the Company. The Company, the Monitor, and their respective directors, officers, agents and advisors make no representation or warranty whatsoever as to the information (including, without limitation, with respect to its accuracy or completeness): (i) contained in the CIM or the Data Room; (ii) provided through the due diligence process or otherwise made available pursuant to the Sale Process; or (iii) otherwise made available to a Potential Bidder except to the extent contemplated in any definitive documentation duly executed and delivered by the Successful Bidder (as defined below) duly executed by the Company and approved by the Court.
22. At any time during the Sale Process, the Monitor may, in its reasonable business judgment, eliminate a Potential Bidder from the Sale Process, in which case such party will no longer be a Potential Bidder for the purposes of the Sale Process.
23. The Monitor shall afford each Potential Bidder such access to applicable due diligence materials and information pertaining to the Business and Assets of the Company as the Monitor deems appropriate in its reasonable business judgment. Due diligence access may include management presentations, access to the Data Room, on-site inspections, and other matters which a Potential Bidder may reasonably request and which the Monitor deems appropriate. The Monitor will designate one or more representatives to coordinate all reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access from each Potential Bidder and the manner in which such requests must be communicated. The Monitor shall not be obligated to furnish any information relating to the Business or the Assets to any person other than to Potential Bidders. For the avoidance of doubt, selected due diligence materials may be withheld from certain Potential Bidders during Phase I or II of the Sale Process, if the Monitor determines such information to represent proprietary or sensitive competitive information related to the Business and/or the Assets of the Company that should not be provided to a Potential Bidder.

The Monitor shall be under no obligation to negotiate identical terms with, or extend identical terms to, each bidder.

37. If a Phase II Bid meets the Phase II Bid Criteria, as determined by the Monitor in its sole discretion in consultation with the Company, such Phase II Bid will be deemed to be a "Qualified Phase II Bid" and the bidder in respect of each such Qualified Phase II Bid shall be a "Qualified Phase II Bidder" in respect to the Sale Process.
38. If no Qualified Phase II Bid (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) is received by the Phase II Bid Deadline, the Stalking Horse Bid shall be deemed the Successful Bid (defined below).

For clarity, the Stalking Horse Agreement may be deemed by the Monitor, in its sole discretion, to be a Back-Up Bid.
43. If a Successful Bidder fails to close the transaction contemplated by the Successful Bid on or before November 23, 2020 (or such other date as the Parties may agree, with the consent of the Monitor), for any reason, then the Company will be deemed to have accepted the Back-Up Bid and will proceed with the transaction pursuant to the terms thereof, in which case the Back-Up Bid shall be considered the Successful Bid for the purposes of this Sale Process.
44. The determination of any Successful Bid or Back-Up Bid by Monitor, in consultation with the Company shall be subject to approval by the Court.

Sale Approval Motion Hearing

50. Other than as specifically set forth in a definitive agreement between the Company and a Successful Bidder, the Sale Process does not, and will not be interpreted to, create any contractual or other legal relationship among the Company, the Monitor, any Interested Party, Qualified Phase I Bidder, Qualified Phase II Bidder, the Successful Bidder, or any other party.
51. Neither the Company nor the Monitor shall be liable for any claim for a brokerage commission, finder's fee or like payment in respect of the consummation of any of the transactions consummated under the Sale Process.
