Professional Summary

- Currently a Manager in the Cloud Accounting group at Crowe Soberman, Haley joined the firm as a staff accountant in 2016. She gained valuable experience in the Audit and Assurance group in a variety of industries with a wide range of clients. She subsequently exited the firm and expanded her experience with industry roles at both a non-profit and family-owned office. She returned to Crowe Soberman, after just over two years, to join the Cloud Accounting group in a client-facing role, overseeing onboarding and in a project management capacity.

Experience

- Haley is passionate about providing meaningful Cloud-based solutions to clients. Her approach is always helpful, personable, knowledgeable.
- She combines her Audit and Assurance experience with the knowledge she gained in industry roles as the foundation for her work in the tech-forward future of accounting.
- Haley is interested in learning about clients' businesses and removing the administrative burden surrounding bookkeeping and finance, such as payroll, payables, and sales tax compliance, to enable and empower them with time to spend focusing on their businesses.
- Haley has worked in a wide variety of industries with clients of all sizes.
- Outside of the office, Haley spends a lot of time with her family and friends and takes her miniature dachshunds on as many walks as possible.
