Professional Summary

- Nada is a manager in Crowe Soberman's Audit & Advisory Group. She joined Crowe Soberman in February 2010 and was previously with a mid-size accounting firm in Toronto. Nada has over eight years of experience in dealing with clients on audit and advisory engagements of varying size and scope.

Experience

- Providing exceptional and insightful advice surrounding tax, accounting and business processes is Nada's standard. In her day-to-day work she strives to produce quality financial analyses and astute recommendations for improvement that assist clients in assessing their operating results. She has been involved with audit and reviews for clients in a variety of industries including manufacturing, retail, marketing and not-for-profit.
- With a keen interest in business, Nada finds great fulfillment in the interaction she has with clients and the learning opportunities that come from working directly with them. Nada approaches her work with a confident and positive attitude that helps her get to know her clients better, and ultimately allows her to tailor services to their unique needs.
- Nada has a Bachelor of Commerce degree with a specialization in accounting from The University of Toronto. She obtained her CPA, CA designation in 2009 and also holds a Post Graduate Diploma – Financial Planning (PFINP) from Sheridan College.
- Nada has been volunteering at The Hospital for Sick Children in the oncology ward for five years. This is an experience she has found truly rewarding and has helped shape her into the genuine professional she is today.
