Professional Summary

- Ross Pasceri is a Partner in the Tax Group at Crowe Soberman. He joined the firm as a Co-op Student in 2015. Ross is experienced in corporate reorganizations, estate and trust planning, transaction advisory, and cross-border structuring.
- Ross attained his CPA, CA designation in 2018, and was placed on the 2017 National Cumulative Final Exam honour roll by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada (CPA Canada). He received his Master of Taxation graduate degree (MTax) in 2016.

Experience

- Ross enjoys finding creative and viable solutions to significant tax problems that simultaneously align with a client's organizational goals. He has helped clients develop tax-efficient corporate reorganization plans (domestic and international) and worked with them and their legal counsel to implement and execute the reorganization plan. He has also helped clients in identifying cross-border investment structuring alternatives for both outbound and inbound investments.
- Ross ensures that clients are compliant with both personal and corporate tax measures. He has helped clients with their tax-compliance needs such as personal, corporate and trust/estate tax returns.
- Ross published an article for Crowe Soberman called "GST/HST – What Does It Mean for Charities?" and he co-published the article, "Tax Changes Expected under the New Liberal Government." In 2022, Ross co-published an article for the firm called "Tax Considerations for Real Estate Owners".
