

Sarah Kingston, CBV
Manager, Valuations | Forensics | Litigation

2 St. Clair Avenue East, Suite 1100 Toronto ON M4T 2T5
Direct: 416 644 3309
sarah.kingston@crowesoberman.com

Professional Summary

- Sarah Kingston is a Manager in the Valuations | Forensics | Litigation (VFL) group at Crowe Soberman. She has over a decade of experience in business valuations, financial consulting and litigation support.
- Her career has been predominantly focused on matrimonial and other litigation matters in Canada. Sarah spent two years at a litigation accounting firm in Los Angeles, which provided exposure to California family law and cross-border family law issues.

Experience

- Sarah has prepared valuations for privately-held businesses across a broad range of industries for purposes of litigation support, specifically in the area of family law, tax planning, estate planning, corporate reorganizations, capital raising, and shareholder buyouts and disputes.
- Her financial litigation support experience also includes income determinations, damages and loss quantification, employee stock option and restricted stock valuations, fund tracing, and other forensic investigations.
- Sarah has prepared expert reports for various litigation matters and has participated in numerous mediation and settlement negotiations. She has presented to the legal community on valuation topics and is a contributing author of “Contracts for the Family Law Client”, LexisNexis Canada, 2024.

Service Focus:

- Business Valuation
- Income Determination
- Family Law Matters
- Litigation Support
- Fraud and Forensic Investigation
- Damages Quantification

Professional Affiliations

- Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators (CICBV)

Education

- Associate Degree in Accounting, Santa Monica College, California
- Bachelor of Science (Honours), Queen's University