Crowe Frankfurt expands its international tax consulting

Annekatrin Küfner strengthens the business area as manager

The internationally oriented auditing and tax consulting firm Crowe Frankfurt is growing and expanding its international tax consulting with the newly hired Annekatrin Küfner as manager in the business area.

Annekatrin Küfner joined Crowe Frankfurt in April 2021 as a tax advisor and specialist consultant for international tax law. In the future, she will complement the firm's team of experts for international tax law as a manager.

Annekatrin Küfner completed her studies in business law at the University of Applied Sciences in Schmalkalden and graduated as a business lawyer. She has been an appointed tax advisor since 2008 and an expert advisor for international tax law since 2011. Her professional experience includes the auditing firm Deloitte, the law firm Luther and most recently the auditing firm KPMG.

"Highly specialized and experienced professionals in international tax consulting are rare. Even more when they have the kind of extensive expertise that we need. That is why we are very pleased that Annekatrin Küfner is now strengthening our international tax consulting business area. We hope that this will provide further impetus for growth," explains Michael Schmitz, Partner and Tax Advisor at Crowe Frankfurt.
