Experience

- Charles started his career in public accounting in 1974 and practised under the sole proprietorship of Charles W D Chan & Co. in 1980. In 1999 the firm practised under a limited company of Charles Chan, Ip & Fung CPA Limited. In October 2009, the company joined a global accounting network as its member firm in Hong Kong and formed Crowe Horwath (HK) CPA Limited, marking a new milestone in business development. The company was renamed as Crowe (HK) CPA Limited in 2018 following rebrand of the accounting network as "Crowe".
- With over 40 years' experience, Charles' CPA practice has expanded to cover a comprehensive range of services including audit and IPO, taxation and trust, IT audit and data security, company secretary, mergers and acquisitions, internal control and business & property valuation services. Since the mid-eighties while China adopted an open door policy, Charles has been actively promoting his CPA practice in mainland China. He frequently delivers free lectures to government officials in the mainland and helps China's window companies to establish footholds in Hong Kong. In early years of his career, Charles was heavily involved in bank audit.
- In recent years, Charles has been assisting his clients particularly the mainland enterprises to raise capital through IPOs, international mergers and acquisitions, and other fund raising activities in Hong Kong and other major capital markets.
