Connecting Crowde in Astana International Finance Centre - Buckle of the China's Belt

Mr. Samuel Choi, our Audit Director and Head of Financial Services, at the Astana Finance Days, a global economic forum organized by AIFC

Mr. Leung Chun Ying, Chairman of Belt and Road Hong Kong Centre Company Limited, sharing his insights on financial technology and its impact on the evolution of financial centers at the Astana Finance Days

Samuel Choi, Audit Director and Head of Financial Services of Crowde Hong Kong, has recently made a fruitful trip to Kazakhstan. Apart from attending the Astana Finance Days and the champagne reception of Eurasia Continental Fintech Limited ("ECFL"), Samuel took the opportunity to introduce Crowde Kazakhstan team to ECFL.

Samuel attended the Astana Finance Days, which was a global economic forum organized by the Astana International Financial Centre ("AIFC") from July 3 to July 5 in Astana, the capital of Kazakhstan. AIFC invited heads of states and leading experts from around the globe to share their views and insights on global financial markets, promotion of connectivity and cooperation between East and West, key financial issues, financial technology and its impact on the evolution of financial centers.

Mr. Carson Wen, Founder and Chairman of ECFL invited Samuel to attend the launch party of ECFL during the Astana Finance Days. Mr. Wen is also the Founder and Chairman of BoA Financial Group Limited in Hong Kong and Bank of Asia (BVI) Limited in the British Virgin Islands, who are clients of Crowe Hong Kong. ECFL is amongst the first batch of fintech companies with the Sandbox Permission issued by the Astana Financial Services Authority. The Company provides digital banking services, including for clients and projects that support the development of China's Belt and Road Initiative. Other notable guests included Mr. Leung Chun Ying, Chairman of Belt and Road Hong Kong Centre Company Limited, Mr. Kairat Kelimbetov, Governor of AIFC, Kazakhstan, and delegates of other business associates from China, Singapore and Hong Kong.

ECFL was launched in the AIFC to take advantage of the wealth, talent and other opportunities it provides. AIFC's unique regime is based on the English Common Law, which facilitates the cooperation between East and West. It is located in Eurasia and has been dubbed as the "Buckle of the Belt" of China's Belt and Road Initiative, attracting investors to the developing financial center.

Clients are best supported by firms and people with global experiences and local knowledge of laws and customs. Samuel took an active role to introduce Mr. Alberto Simoncini and Ms. Lidiya Petruk, Managing Partner and Audit Partner of Crowe Kazakhstan respectively to the clients. The introduction provides a good example of Crowe's global network and capabilities to best serve clients' business needs and development.
