

Mary Ho, Partner (Tax)

AICPA, CGMA

Direct: +852 2894 6161

mary.wfho@crowe.hk

Experience

- Mary provides advice to her clients on a wide range of China, Hong Kong and international tax issues. She is experienced in cross-border corporate tax planning, expatriate tax planning, offshore fund exemption planning, transfer pricing and tax due diligence. Mary has assisted a number of clients to set up establishments in China and design tax strategies for repatriation. Prior to joining Crowe in Hong Kong, Mary worked for two international accounting firms as tax director and tax principal.
- Mary has written a number of business cases and teaching notes. They are distributed by Harvard Business Online, The University of Hong Kong, The Hong Kong University of Science & Technology and the European Case Clearing House. She also co-authored a winning case on mergers and acquisitions in an international MBA case competition held in Montreal. Mary is one of the authors of the book entitled Small Business Management and Entrepreneurship in Hong Kong.

Professional Affiliations

- Member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)
- Chartered Global Management Accountant

Education

- Bachelor of Business Administration (First Class Honours)
- Diploma in Advanced Securities Market Analysis (with Distinction)
- Diploma in Graphic Design

Service Focus:

- Hong Kong and China Tax Services
- Hong Kong and China Business Advisory
- Transfer Pricing Services
- International Assignment Services

Industry Focus:

- All industries in manufacturing, service and commerce