Experience

- Nickson has been in the professional accounting practice for over 20 years. He started his professional career with a Big 4 accounting firm in Hong Kong, where he has been involved in the audits and internal control engagements of various local groups of companies, both listed and unlisted, and several multi-national conglomerates. In 1994, Nickson joined the Hong Kong brokerage arm of a leading UK Financial Group and became one of the management team members. In 1996, he set up his own professional accounting practice with a partner.
- In 2000, Nickson joined CCIF CPA Limited as audit director, where he has been heavily involved in audits of companies listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and a number of Hong Kong IPO cases. Nickson became our audit director in March 2013.
