2024 Outlook

2024.... Will Be A Record Year For Closing Hotel Deals!

“2024 will present huge opportunities including heightened deal flow, exciting new openings and major Dublin events. There will also be big challenges around holding margins, planning restrictions hampering new builds and elevated financing costs.

Based on live transactions and the pipeline, we forecast Irish hotel deal volumes to reach €750M in 2024. This is more than double 2023 deal volumes and will represent a record high year”
