

Crowe Global Announces Board Members

11/8/2021

Crowe Global (Crowe), one of the largest accounting networks in the world has confirmed two new members to its board of directors. Filipa Correia, International Liason Partner (Italy) and Erastus Omolo, Managing Partner (Kenya), take their positions on the Crowe Global board as of 1 January 2022. Alongside the new additions, two existing members Kuang Hui Tan (Singapore) and Héctor García (Mexico) were successfully re-elected as members of the board.

This is not the only change of leadership Crowe has seen recently: Jim Powers, former CEO of Crowe LLP (USA) took over as co-chairman of the network alongside Jiantao Yang (China) at the beginning of 2021, replacing Charles Allen who had served as co-chairman since 2015.

Operating in 146 countries across the world, Crowe's announcement reinforces their strategy to position the network for continued future growth through investment in their services and their people.

The newly elected board members will serve for a two-year term.

David Mellor, Chief Executive Officer of Crowe Global, remarks:

"The Board of Directors plays an essential role in guiding network strategy to achieve our vision and core purpose of being trusted advisers who care.

During this time of unprecedented volatility, the board's wealth of experience and local knowledge is invaluable to support sustainable future growth. I am extremely proud of the progress we have made this year and the continued support and stability we have been able to provide to our clients, our people and our communities.

As the world begins to recover from the pandemic, we see opportunities ahead for our clients, the network and the profession. Crowe is well-placed to step forward and seize these opportunities and I look forward to seeing the value they bring".
