L. Olandor Boyce I

L. Olandor Boyce, I
BBA, MBA, CPA (USA),
CFE (USA), FCPA (USA)
CPA (Lib)

Partner
Direct: +231 (0)886 523 420
Cell: +231 (0)770 533 646
oboyce@crowe.com.lr

- L. Olandor Boyce I is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) licensed in the State of New Jersey, USA. He is also a Certified Fraud Examiner of the USA.

- Mr. Boyce is a Certified Global Management Accountant (CGMA) of the USA.

- He hold a BBA (Hons.) in Accounting from the Stella Maris Polytechnic and an MBA in Accounting from the University of Liberia. He also holds advanced certificates in USAID projects and Microfinance audits.

- Mr. Boyce started his public accounting professional career in 2000 as a trainee accountant with Baker Tilly Liberia (formerly VOSCON INC.)

L. Olandor Boyce I

He rose from the rank of an audit trainee to manager. He is currently a Partner of Crowe Liberia, LLC responsible for audit and assurance services. He has also obtained audit professional experiences in the industrialized countries of France and the Republic of South Africa.

Over the years Mr. Boyce have been involved with the provision of audit and assurance services to not-for-profit institutions and local & international donor funded projects (GOL, World Bank, USAID, EU, SIDA, SDC and DFID) among others.

On October 8 to 13, 2016, Mr. Boyce attended an EU sponsored workshop on EU Funded Projects Expenditure Verification conducted by Moore Stephens in Monrovia, Liberia.

L. Olandor Boyce I

Over the years also, Mr. Boyce have worked in many audit capacities for clients in the following industries -: Governmental, Not-For-Profit Non-governmental, agriculture (Rubber), Auto Sales & Service, Beverage Manufacturing, Telecommunications, Oil & Gas, Mining, Construction etc.. Other audit experiences include – United Nations – Implemented Projects, USAID – Implemented Projects, DFID Projects and EU Projects.
Mr. Boyce will bring to this engagement more than sixteen years of experience in the audit of not-for-profits and local & International donor funded projects.