

Anand is a qualified Chartered Accountant with the Institute of Chartered Accountant in England & Wales (ICAEW), a Chartered member with the Chartered Institute for Securities & Investments (CISI UK) and a member with the Mauritius Institute of Professional Accountant (MIPA). He also holds a BA(hons) degree in Finance, Accounting & Management from the University of Nottingham (UK).

He has over 13 years of experience in Finance Operations, Financial Management, Technical Accounting and Reporting including advisory, Statutory Audit and Other Assurance engagements, Transaction services such as Due Diligence and Integration, and Corporate/Personal Tax including advising on planning & structuring. His experience encompasses a broad range of businesses from large multinationals to privately owned business across a wide range of industries such as Insurance, Manufacturing, Retail, Real Estate and Technology.