Business & Outsourcing Services

Focus on your business, we'll do the rest.

Why Business & Outsourcing Services?

Business is already complicated without the peripheral services that take management time and attention. To achieve success, one has to remain focused on business activities that directly generate sales and income. Management therefore should consider making a choice to concentrate on the essential and outsource the rest of the business activities to service providers.

Outsourcing is not limited merely to simple data entry or mundane matters. As the business environment becomes more complex and recruiting the right talent becomes difficult, it is necessary to delegate seemingly important matters such as payroll, accounting, tax compliance, accounts preparation, secretarial and administrative services to experts who specialize in such activities

In Crowe, we have a large specialized team that can take care of your business and outsourcing needs. We are flexible in our arrangements and we can tailor the services to suit your requirements. Our services may be ad-hoc or highly organised, temporary or long term. Whatever the size of your needs, we can provide the one stop services that you need.

Our business mantra is to take care of your business services needs while you take care of your clients' needs.

What we can do for you..

We can assist in preparing the monthly payroll of your employees, issue payslips to your employees and organize the payment of payroll as well as the statutory deductions to the government authorities e.g. EPF, SOCSO and the Inland Revenue Board.

You merely need to review the payroll for accuracy and provide us with the necessary information for our purposes. Where necessary, we will also provide you with technical information on Human Resource matters so that you can minimize the recruitment of senior HR personnel and thereby

We are well versed in this area of business services and will be able to offer specialized services to meet your expats' needs.
