

Threat intelligence: Protect your business from emerging threats

The current pandemic has resulted in businesses quickly transitioning into remote ways of working. This has meant that now more than ever, there is a higher risk of threat activity against businesses.

In order to help protect your business from such threats, Crowe are offering a weekly threat intelligence report which can be bought on a monthly or annual basis.

This threat intelligence report is based on information obtained from both open and confidential sources. It is designed for UK-centric organisations but includes information regarding matters outside the UK where these may have an impact on activity within the UK. Crowe is able to provide country- or sector-specific threat intelligence reports where required.

The weekly report highlights four areas which may be impacting your business:

1. physical and business threats
2. financial crime
3. cyber threats
4. technical matters.

Affordable subscription prices

Monthly subscription of £50

This includes four reports which will be issued to you at the end of every week.

Annual subscription of £495

Get twelve months for the price of under ten by signing up annually.
